The Most Holy Trinity

BEING DRAWN UP INTO PERFECT LOVE

Wanting to love and be loved is a basic desire. Some people get tattoos, funky hairstyles or flashy cars to attract a sense of love from others. Other people illicit love by provoking people, bullying people, using profanity and/or telling unclean jokes. Still others love and receive love by surrounding themselves with loving people that care. Yet, all attempts at wanting to be loved is frugal if we forget to take time to get drawn up into the most perfect of all love relationships—that love relationship between God as Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Our perfect Father who loves us so much that he gave us his perfect Son to lead and guide us into their perfect love relationship, which is the Holy Spirit. Yes, we are drawn up into God's perfect love every time we begin or end our prayers with the Sign of the Cross. We get drawn up into God's perfect love as we end our prayers in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. The Church draws us into God's perfect love every time the Bishop or Priest gives us a blessing in the name of the Trinity at the end of Mass. To be a people that inherently yearns to love and be loved, we celebrate this Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity and the many opportunities that our faith tradition gives us to be caught up, to be held, to be transfixed by the most perfect give and take relationship in existence—the love relationship between God as Father, Son and Holy Spirit. It is time to stop putting on airs, distorting relationships and/or getting lost in addictions to numb the pain of the lack of loving and being loved. It's time to get caught up in the most perfect of love relationships ó the Most Holy Trinity.
