“Sins of Omission” - Not Good!

There are those self-assured people that believe that they will be rewarded in heaven because they have not committed any bad things. They are in general a “good person.” As Jesus teaches in the story of Lazarus and the rich man (Lk 16: 19-31), salvation and eternal life are not just about avoiding so-called “big “ sins. Failure to do something that we can and ought to do is also considered a sin – a sin of omission (Catechism of the Catholic Church #1853). A sin of omission is when you see a need and do nothing to help meet that need. A sin of omission is when you have a chance to share your faith but remain silent. A sin of omission is when you choose to look the other way when something wrong is being said or done. Sins of omission are nothing to mess around with. The reality is that simply avoiding mortal sins does not guarantee eternal reward in heaven. As Christians, we must live like Christ, live for his Kingdom, and live for others by loving God with all of our hearts and loving our neighbor as ourselves. The rich man in the above parable seems to have been a pretty good guy. And yet, he failed to enter into eternal life. Why? Partly because of his “sins of omission.” Day after day, he closed his heart to a neighbor who was in dire need of help. And since the law of heaven is self-giving, he was judged unfit to spend eternity in heaven. The key is don't close off your heart. Don't close off your heart when you know that you can and ought to do something for someone, even with the simplest of needs. Sins of omission – not good!

STEWARDSHIP

Jesus is sending the Pharisees, and us, a wake-up call through the parable of Lazarus and the rich man. The rich man committed a very serious sin, but the sin was not that he was rich, but that he failed to share his wealth with the beggar at his gate. To faithful Christian stewards, the task of helping the poor throughout the world seems over-whelming, yet the Lord gives us hope that we can make a difference by sharing our blessings with others. Don't ignore God's wake up calls.

PICK OF THE WEEK

WATCH THÉRÈSE

A pampered child from a middle-class 19th century French family, Therese Martin journeys to Rome to beg Pope Leo XIII for permission to enter the Carmelite monastery at the unheard-of age of 15. Once admitted she experiences the joys and rigors of monastic life, and makes the surprising yet small discovery that holiness can be achieved by small acts of love and compassion – a spiritual path she calls her "Little Way."

LISTEN

THE CASE FOR JESUS BY DR. BRANT PITRE

Dr. Brant Pitre, Scripture scholar and bestselling author, uses biblical and historical evidence to bolster the "case for Jesus" by exposing the problems with the many false theories that have been introduced over the past hundred years, resulting in widespread skepticism about the reliability of Christian Faith. He tackles head-on questions like: Were the four Gospels written anonymously? Did Jesus claim to be God? Did Jesus fulfill the Jewish prophecies of the Messiah? and many more.

Cooking with Cancellare!

It's been a busy month in S.T.R.E.A.M. class with Mrs. Cancellare! Last week, Kindergarten and seventh grade "ate the rainbow," where they tried fruits and vegetables of each color of the rainbow. Students were excited to eat some of their favorite foods, and to discover new things such as pomegranate seeds, kiwi and persimmons!

This week, second graders made muffins! They learned all about different measurement types, how to mix wet and dry ingredients, and got to experiment with unusual flavors. Students made muffins with strawberries, pears, pumpkin, cranberries, chocolate chips, and more!

The Rowdy Foundation presents "In My Shoes."

We were so thankful to the Rowdy Foundation for speaking with our second and third graders today. The "In My Shoe" program is designed to teach children about what it's like to having different abilities. This week, they taught our students about Autism and Vision Impairments. Mrs. Whitney Brown and Mrs. Whitney Ferguson were also joined by a group of Heritage Academy seniors that took the time to read stories and do activities with us. We cannot say thank you enough!
