THE POWER OF GOD'S MERCY

Lingering. Habitual. Out of control. How would you describe the persistence of sin in your life? There are those who say that they are sincerely committed to following Christ yet continue to live with overwhelming sinful choices. Some people even feel as if they are powerless to overcome the impulse to sin; they simply keep choosing against God's commands and their own better judgment. What are those sins? In trying to name our transgressions, we don't have to look any further than the seven deadly sins. Which one(s) have a grip on you: lust; gluttony; greed; laziness/idleness; anger; jealousy; pride? St. Paul in his letter to the Ephesians 2: 4-10 reminds us that God is rich in mercy. We do not have to stay dead in our transgressions. We do not have to be hopelessly weighed down by sin. Christ Jesus constantly wants to show us mercy and free us from bondage. His mercy can come in many ways. We can receive mercy through daily prayer, through going to confession, fasting, even offering up our sufferings. There are many ways Christ Jesus' mercy abounds, but we must open the door for the Lord. We must take the step to invite the Lord to transform lust into purity, gluttony into self-restraint, greed into charity, laziness into zeal, anger into forgiveness, jealousy into kindness and pride into humility. Yes, there are always going to be temptations and there are going to be times that the devil gets the best of us. We celebrate an even more powerful mercy that God gives us that endures forever. Let us surrender ourselves to Christ Jesus and live bound by His mercy.

*Christ's Blessings

Hope Rising Catholic Service Appeal

The Catholic Service Appeal is the Bishop's appeal to all the parishioners in our diocese. By sharing your blessings you support the ministries of our diocese. Your gift supports our retired priests, engages our youth through youth ministries, prepares couples for the sacrament of marriage, allows Catholic Charities to provide counseling to those in need and so much more. How much you give is less important than the spirit in which you give. All gifts make a difference. Please consider your gift to the Catholic Service Appeal.

Please give today!
