“Sins of Omission” - Not Good!

There are those self-assured people who believe that they will be rewarded in heaven because they have not committed any grave sins. They are, in general, a “good person.” As Jesus teaches in the story of Lazarus and the rich man (Lk 16: 19-31), salvation and eternal life are not just about avoiding so-called “big “ sins. Failure to do something that we can and ought to do is also considered a sin – a sin of omission (Catechism of the Catholic Church #1853). A sin of omission occurs when you see a need and fail to take action to help meet that need. A sin of omission is when you have a chance to share your faith but remain silent. A sin of omission is when you choose to look the other way when something wrong is being said or done. Sins of omission are nothing to mess around with. The reality is that simply avoiding mortal sins does not guarantee eternal reward in heaven. As Christians, we must live like Christ, live for His kingdom, and live for others by loving God with all our hearts and loving our neighbor as ourselves. The rich man in the above parable seems to have been a pretty good guy. And yet, he failed to enter into eternal life. Why? Partly because of his “sins of omission.” Day after day, he closed his heart to a neighbor who was in dire need of help. And since the law of heaven is self-giving, he was judged unfit to spend eternity in heaven. The key is not to close off your heart. Don’t close off your heart when you know that you can and ought to do something for someone, even with the simplest of needs. Sins of omission – not good!

Christ's Blessings!

Pinwheels for Peace

ACS celebrated the International Day of Peace by planting pinwheels at the peace pole on campus. Each student drew on their pinwheel just what peace means to them. They then sang as a group as they walked from the gym to the front garden. ACS has participated in Pinwheels for Peace for more than a decade now. It is a great reminder that we can pray for peace in our world daily.

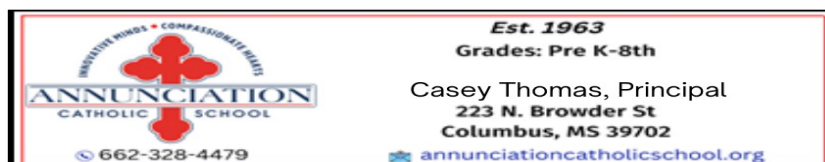

At Mass, Father Jeffrey also spoke about peace. He even followed up on a suggestion by 2nd grade to wear a peace sign like superman. We love that he lets the children help lead worship here at ACS.

ACS Basketball Club

ACS works hard to educate the whole child, and part of that is providing an opportunity to compete. This year, for the first time ever, ACS has a basketball club.

The club consists of two teams, a 5th and 6th grade team and a 7th grade team. The goal is for kids to work together and support one another. Every practice and game begins with a prayer. The team played their first game this week against Amory Christian and won one, lost one. What a great venture!

Which flower in Jesus's garden is the best? The most beautiful? St. Therese gives us her "little" answer to these questions.

St. Francis of Assisi: Sign of Contradiction

From 4PM Media and The Ministry of the Wild Goose comes a breathtaking film on the life of St. Francis of Assisi. A fool according to the standards of the world, St. Francis' life was a sign of contradiction, convicting others of the beauty of Christ and his Gospel.

St. Jerome | Catholic Saints

An early Church Father from the 4th century, St. Jerome translated the Bible into Latin with the desire to make Scripture more accessible. St. Jerome is the patron of biblical scholars, translators, and archivists and famously said, "Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ."
